RE: Legal Opinion Regarding Request For Public Records: On Controlled Choice Schools. Communications/Documents Between The City And Outside Counsel Are Exempt From Public Disclosure Under Section 119.071(1)(d) Of Florida Statues

Date: February 25, 2015

I have reviewed the request and considered Chapter 119 of the Florida Statutes, along with the Government-in-the-Sunshine Manual. It is my opinion that the request for communications/documents between the City and outside counsel are exempt from public disclosure at this time under section 119.071(1)(d) of the Florida Statutes, based on the present administrative proceeding before the School Board (which is a contested proceeding at this point), including the imminence of litigation that has been threatened against the City relating to the administrative proceeding and the controlled choice matter, as well as the imminence of litigation that may be brought by the City relating to the administrative proceeding and controlled choice matter. Outside counsel has been advising the City in relation to the administrative proceeding and in anticipation of litigation, and the City has a statutory right to protect those documents from disclosure until the matter is complete. Likewise, there are documents prepared by the City Attorney's Office, as in house counsel, that fall under the same exemption. I am asking the Assistant City Attorney to review available documents and provide ones to you that do not fall under these exemptions (for example, public or informational documents that have been provided to the Commission and that are not subject to the exemption). She will be in contact with you soon.

Ms. Mesa,

As clarification, the statutory basis for the exemption is section 119.071(1)(d) of the Florida Statutes.

To: Yaneris Figueroa, Assistant City Attorney

Dear Ms. Figueroa:

It was a pleasure speaking with you again this morning. This is to followup in writing to my request from earlier this week for public records, specifically reports, emails, memorandums of law or fact, related to the controlled choice issue under consideration by the City of Coral Gables, produced by outside counsel contracted by the City of Coral Gables, including but not limited to attorneys from the law firm of Stearns, Weaver, et al and also outside counsel from a Washington, DC law firm. This request also includes a request to see correspondence in any form from the Office the City Attorney concerning same matter to outside counsel and City officials, including city commissioners and mayor and the city manager.

In that this matter will be heard in a public hearing on Tuesday, Feb. 24, I would appreciate receiving these materials in a timely manner before said hearing so that I can be best informed on this issue of great public interest.

If you have only some of these materials readily available today, please feel free to forward those in a partial fulfillment of my request, to be followed by other materials as they are able to be retrieved. I appreciate that not all these documents are readily available and may take additional time.

Please advise when I may come by city hall to review any of these documents or if you are able, please feel free to forward same to me by electronic mail.

Thank you in advance for your prompt attention to this matter.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or need additional information.

Sincerely,
Blanca Mesa

Please Note: Florida has a very broad Public Records Law. Most written communications to or from State and Local Officials regarding State or Local business are public records available to the public and media upon request. Your email communications may therefore be subject to public disclosure.
